Preparation for Total Consecration according to
Saint Louis Marie de Montfort

True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin is one of the greatest and most celebrated books ever written about Our lady. Praised by popes, mystics and theologians, this profound and powerful book presents Mary as the essential and infallible key to the heart of Jesus. Nowhere will you find a deeper and more life-changing book on that quintessentially Catholic doctrine: the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the life of the Christian and the life of the Church.

Unpublished during the saint's lifetime, it has enjoyed the endorsement of the many outstanding popes the Church has been blessed with since its discovery in 1842. John Paul II, in particular, was its tireless champion, crediting True Devotion with a turning-point in his spiritual life, adopting his motto, Totus tuus, from Saint Louis.

The key to De Montfort's Marian spirituality is that he considered Our Lady to be the infallible and chosen gate to the heart of Christ – To Jesus through Mary: it is Christ Himself Who is at the center of True Devotion.

It is obvious that this total consecration, or perfect renewal of our baptismal vows with and through Mary is not to be taken lightly. Pope John Paul II said that "Reading this book (Saint Louis de Montfort's True Devotion to Mary) was to be the turning point in my life... This Marian devotion... has since remained a part of me. It is an integral part of my interior life and of my spiritual theology."

In his Marian Year encyclical, Mother of the Redeemer, speaking of Marian Spirituality, the Holy Father singles out: "among the many witnesses of this spirituality, the figure of Saint Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort, who proposes consecration to Christ through the hands of Mary, as an effective means for Christians to live faithfully their baptismal commitments." (No. 48)
