Love of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament

Saint John Bosco, who loved Christ in the Blessed Sacrament so deeply and spread that love to so many, help me to understand this mystery of God’s love for me, that I too may find, in frequent attendance at Mass and Holy Communion and in visits to the Blessed Sacrament, comfort and strength throughout my life and at the hour of my death.

Saint John Bosco, full of confidence I turn to you, asking you to intercede for me. Help me to lead a good and happy life. May I always be a help to others, avoid sin and die a happy death. Bring down the blessings of God on all those in my thoughts and prayers now, and obtain for me the special graces which I now ask (Mention your request here). I trust in His love and mercy to grant what He knows is best for me.

From heaven intercede for all Missionaries, that their work may be blessed. Obtain for me a zeal like yours, that in working with generosity and enthusiasm for the salvation of others, I may save my soul.

Day Eight For Purity

Saint John Bosco, by God’s grace you preserved within yourself an overwhelming love for purity and preached it by word and example. You led Dominic Savio to holiness while he was still a schoolboy. Obtain for me the grace to be pure of heart and so through my own way of life to let others see the joy of life in friendship with Christ.
